6. YOUTH GRANTS 2018

(Document 18/180)

An amount of $5,000 per annum (July to June) was allocated to the Youth Council for activities during the year. This allocation could be used to complete events or tasks of the Youth Council Annual Plan. The Youth Grant could be considered a form of scholarship for students to attend an event. Last year 10 x $200 Youth Grants were allocated.

Youth Grants had not been included as an activity in the Youth Council Annual Plan for 2018. Members agreed that this be included in the Annual Plan. How this activity will be funded is yet to be decided, whether it be through the Youth Council budget or through sponsorship/fundraising.

The Youth Co-ordinator, Ryan Gardiner would provide clarification of the Youth Council budget at the next meeting.

CARRIED

7. COUNCIL COMMITTEES

(Document 18/193)

The Team Leader Youth Development, Mr Steffert spoke to the Youth Council about the Committees within the Hastings District Council. Currently there is no process that provides for a Youth Council representative to actively participate in committee meetings with voting or speaking rights.

However, speaking rights to any Committee on specific reports maybe granted through the Chair unless a meeting is closed to the public.

Elected members of Council would welcome a voice from a youth perspective and if Youth Council were interested in having representation at Committee meetings it would need to go through a democratic process.

Members indicated they would be interested in attending and participating in the following Committees:

Economic Development and Urban Affairs Committee - Eleanor Matich, Kaikohe Hutana, Connor Molloy, Hena Dugh and Emilee Scarborough

Finance and Monitoring Committee - Gurjas Sekhon, Oscar Malpas and Charlotte Frogley

Planning and Regulatory Committee – Eleanor Matich and Emilee Scarborough

Social and Culture Development Committee – Caroline Jones, Hope McClelland, Kate Allan, Hena Dugh, Matekairoa Butler, Samantha Anderson, Max Sharp, Cameron Young, Kaikohe Hutana, Xinyi Chen and Abigail Masengi
