Hastings District Council: Hastings District Rural Community Board

Te Rārangi Take

Report to Hastings District Rural Community Board

Nā:
From: Louise Stettner, Manager, Democracy & Governance Services

Te Take:
Subject: Voting Systems for Certain Appointments

1.0 Purpose and summary - Te Kaupapa Me Te Whakarāpopototanga

- 1.1 Clause 24 (3) of Schedule 7 of The Local Government Act 2002 requires that every act or question coming before a local authority must be done or decided by open voting. In other words, the Council or the Board cannot hold a secret ballot to determine who gets appointed to any position or positions.
- 1.2 Clause 25 of Schedule 7 gives two systems for:
- a) the election or appointment of the deputy mayor;
 - b) the election or appointment of a chairperson and deputy chairperson;
 - c) the election or appointment of representatives on other organisations.
- 1.3 The 2 systems, are called in the Act, System A and System B.
- 1.4 System A –
- a) provides that a person is elected or appointed if he or she receives the votes of a majority of the members of the local authority present and voting; and
 - b) has the following characteristics:
 - (i) there is a first round of voting for all candidates; and

- (ii) if no candidate is successful in getting a majority in that round there is a second round of voting from which the candidate with the fewest votes in the first round is excluded; and
- (iii) if no candidate is successful in the second round there is a third, and if necessary subsequent, rounds of voting from which, each time, the candidate with the fewest votes in the previous round is excluded; and
- (iv) in any round of voting, if 2 or more candidates tie for the lowest number of votes, the person excluded from the next round is resolved by lot.

e.g. If there are 3 candidates and all 7 members are present and vote, the majority is 4

Round 1 - Candidate A 3 votes
 Candidate B 3 votes
 Candidate C 1 vote

Candidate A does not have 4 votes, the required majority, so
 Candidate C is excluded

Round 2 - Candidate A 5 votes
 Candidate B 2 votes
 Candidate A has the majority and is successful

1.5 System B –

- a) provides that a person is elected or appointed if he or she receives more votes than any other candidate; and
- b) has the following characteristics:
 - (i) there is only 1 round of voting; and
 - (ii) if 2 or more candidates tie for the most votes, the tie is resolved by lot.

1.6 There is no casting vote in these situations, as Clause 25 provides for ties to be resolved by lot.

Report to Hastings District Rural Community Board

Nā:
From: Louise Stettner, Manager, Democracy & Governance Services

Te Take:
Subject: Conflicts of Interest

1.0 Purpose and summary - Te Kaupapa Me Te Whakarāpopototanga

- 1.1 The purpose of this report is to inform members about the following Conflicts of Interest statement that appears on order papers for Council and Committee meetings.
- 1.2 An explanation of the Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968 appears in the Legal Officers report under the report titled, 'Legislation Affecting Members'. However, Members may also have non-pecuniary conflicts of interest.
- 1.3 The Conflict of Interest statement serves as a reminder to members to scan the agenda and assess their own private interests and identify where they may have a pecuniary or other conflict of interest, or where there may be perceptions of conflict of interest.
- 1.4 The current wording of the statement is as follows:
- 1.5 "Conflicts of Interest

Members need to be vigilant to stand aside from decision-making when a conflict arises between their role as a Member of the Council and any private or other external interest they might have. This note is provided as a reminder to Members to scan the agenda and assess their own private interests and identify where they may have a pecuniary or other conflict of interest, or where there may be perceptions of conflict of interest.

If a Member thinks they may have a conflict of interest, they can seek advice from the Chief Executive or Executive Advisor/ Manager Office of the Chief Executive (preferably before the meeting).

It is noted that while Members can seek advice and discuss these matters, the final decision as to whether a conflict exists rests with the member”.

- 1.6 Clause 19.7 of the Hastings District Rural Community Board Standing Orders provides as follows:

Financial conflicts of interest

Every member present at a meeting must declare any direct or indirect financial interest that they hold in any matter being discussed at the meeting, other than an interest that they hold in common with the public.

No member may vote on, or take part in, a discussion about any matter in which they have a direct or indirect financial interest unless an exception set out in s.6 LAMIA applies to them, or the Auditor-General has granted them an exemption or declaration under s.6.

Members with a financial interest should physically withdraw themselves from the table unless the meeting is in public excluded in which case they should leave the room.

Neither the Chairperson nor the meeting may rule on whether a member has a financial interest in the matter being discussed. The minutes must record any declarations of financial interests and the member’s abstention from any discussion and voting on the matter.

1.0 Purpose and summary - Te Kaupapa Me Te Whakarāpopototanga

Following 2022 triennial elections

CG-14-1-01535

KEY LEGISLATION AFFECTING COUNCILLORS IN THEIR DUTIESA) Local Government Act 2002

This is the main piece of legislation setting out the role and functions of councils.

It covers a huge range of council functions. Key areas include:

- Purpose of Local Government and Role and Powers of Local Authorities
- Structure and Reorganisation of Local Government
- Local Government Commission
- Governance and Management of Local Authorities, Local Boards and Community Boards
- Council-controlled Organisations and Council Organisations
- Decision-making
- Consultation
- Community Outcomes
- Planning - The Long-Term Plan
- Infrastructure Strategy
- Annual Report
- Financial Management
- Borrowing & Security
- Water Services
- Bylaws
- Enforcement Powers
- Development Contributions
- Offences and Legal Proceedings
- Reorganisation of Local Authorities
- Minister's Powers in relation to Local Authorities
- Constitution of Communities
- Provisions regarding members & meetings & employment matters

B) Local Government Act 1974

The provisions of the Local Government Act 1974 remain in relation to roading and some drainage provisions.

C) Secret Commissions Act 1910

This makes it an offence for a councillor to accept (or attempt to obtain) for the councillor or any other person a gift, inducement or reward for doing or not doing something. The maximum penalty is seven years imprisonment.

There are similar provisions against bribery in the Crimes Act (also a maximum penalty of 7 years imprisonment)

D) Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968

This is a very important Act.

CG-14-1-01535

It is designed to maintain natural justice, to ensure that councillors' decisions are not affected by any personal motive.

Pecuniary Interest

A councillor must not discuss or vote on any matter in which the councillor or his/her spouse has a direct or indirect pecuniary (i.e. monetary) interest.

A failure to abide by the pecuniary interest prohibition is an offence and is likely to lead to prosecution and removal from office.

If you believe you have a pecuniary interest, you need to declare your interest to the meeting (you do not need to give details). You need to ensure that the minutes of the meeting subsequently record your declaration and abstention from discussion and voting.

The Council maintains a voluntary register of councillors' interests to assist staff in giving councillors help with this area. It is, however, your responsibility as a councillor to declare a potential interest, not the staff's responsibility to police it.

Non-pecuniary interest

Non-pecuniary interest is any interest the member may have in an issue that does not involve money. A common term for this is "bias". Rules about bias operate not only to ensure that there is no actual bias, but also so there is no appearance or possibility of bias. The principle is that justice should not only be done, but it should be seen to be done. Bias may be exhibited where: -

- By their statements or conduct a member may indicate that they have predetermined the matter before hearing or considering all of the relevant information on it; or
- The member has a close relationship with an individual or organisation affected by the matter.

Non-pecuniary interest is a difficult issue as it often involves matters of perception and degree. The question you need to consider, drawn from case law, is:

Is there, to a reasonable, fair minded and informed observer, a real indication of bias on the part of a member of the decision making body, in the sense that they might unfairly regard with favour (or disfavour) the case of a party to the issue under consideration?"

If there is, the member should declare their interest and withdraw from the debate. The law about bias does not put you at risk of personal liability. Instead, the validity of the Council's decision could be at risk. The need for public confidence in the decision-making process is paramount and perception can be an important factor.

CG-14-1-01535

Contracts

A councillor cannot be involved in contracts with a council for which total payments exceed $25,000 in a financial year. This includes contracts made by the councillor, or their spouse, or contracts with any company in which the councillor or the councillor's spouse has ten percent or more of the issued capital or of which either the councillor or spouse is the managing director or general manager (however named).

It may be possible to obtain prior Audit New Zealand approval for contracts greater than $25,000.

An example of a pecuniary interest

A member who voted on a roading proposal affecting a shopping centre in which he had a shop was held to have a pecuniary interest.

The moral of the story is:

“When in doubt, don’t discuss it or vote on it and make sure your abstention is recorded.”

E) Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987

The principal purposes of this Act are:

- To make official information held by local authorities more freely available.
- To provide for proper access by each person to official information relating to that person.
- To provide for the admission of the public to meetings of local authorities.
- To protect official information held by local authorities and the deliberations of local authorities to the extent consistent with the public interest and the protection of personal privacy.

The fundamental principle of the Act is that information should be made available unless there is good reason for withholding it. A number of procedures are set out under the Act for the achievement of this principle and these purposes. The Council's Standing Orders are in many respects a combination of parts of the Local Government Act 2002 and the requirements of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987.

F) Crimes Act 1961

Sections 105 and 105A of the Crimes Act 1961 prescribe a maximum penalty of seven years' imprisonment for any member or officer found guilty of bribery and corruption as well as any member or officer of the Council who corruptly uses information to obtain a pecuniary gain for that person or any other person. Section 99 defines bribery and makes it clear that both staff and councillors are covered by the provisions.

G) Resource Management Act 1991

CG-14-1-01535

Members of the Council on the Hearings Committee and members of the Planning & Regulatory Committee will have extensive involvement with this Act. The purpose of the Act is to promote the sustainable management of natural and physical resources.

H) Local Electoral Act 2001

This Act and its subordinate regulations control the running of council elections.

I) Local Government (Rating) Act 2002

This Act provides a code for the setting and collection rates.

J) Protected Disclosures (Protection of Whistleblowers) Act 2022

Protection under the Act applies where an employee has information about a serious wrongdoing; a reasonable belief that the information is true or likely to be true; the employee wishes to have the matter investigated; and desires protection under the Act.

The employee may come to you in the first instance, but the Act requires disclosure by an employee to follow the internal procedures to address the receipt of and dealing with information about serious wrongdoing in or by the Council.

K) Public Records Act 2005

This Act sets out obligations on local authorities over how they create, maintain, transfer and dispose of records.
